THE CONSTITUTION

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO. ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1869. VOLUME II.—NUMBER 38

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA:.....JULY 29.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a call from Dr. J. S. Knapp, of New Orleans, President of the Dental Convention, now holding in the city. We welcome the Doctor, and his confreres, cordially to our city.

DISGRACEFUL.—A base ball company, from Savannah, on Saturday, made an excursion to Charleston, to try a game with Charleston players. They were cordially greeted, and handsomely treated, by the Charlestonian whites. They beat their Charleston competitors very triumphantly.

But the conduct of the negroes was disgraceful. The Savannah party were mobbed by them, and a number hurt. The Charleston Radical city authorities, were unable to quell the mob, and the military had to be called out for the protection of the visitors.

This is a characteristic specimen of negro Radicalism. It shows what Radical doctrine leads to.

AFFRAY AT TILTON.—At Tilton, on Tuesday night, a man named Hogan, was stabbed badly by an unknown Alabamian, who escaped. The parties were drinking. The stranger asked Hogan to treat him. Hogan said he would give him a gallon if he wanted it. They started off to the grocery together, and on the way the stabbing occurred. Hogan is not expected to live. Hogan is said to be an employee of the State road.

These are the facts as detailed by a gentleman who came down this morning.

The Macon Messenger announces the death of Mrs. Jennie M. Wood, daughter of late C. A. Ells, Esq., of Macon and wife of G. H. Wood, of the United States Treasury Department.

The Brown Hotel is being enlarged to sixty rooms more. Melons disappearing. [Macon Messenger.

John K. Brown killed Jos. T. Rollins, in Telfair county, the 22d.—Ibid.

In Laurens, corn crop gone up; labor wont work well; cotton critical—best probable yield, 300 pounds to the acre. Glorious showers in Dooly county. Crops good in lower part of Pulaski. Macon and Brunswick Road pushing ahead in Pulaski. Splendid peach crop about and below Macon.—Macon Telegraph.

A good crop of corn will be made. Cotton in a splendid condition.—Monroe Advertiser.

Mrs. Jane Gunn, of Butts county, committed suicide, on the 18th.

THE WAY THEY DO IT.—The other evening, the colored gentleman who has charge of the Macon Post-office, found the back door wide open, and entering, saw, with astonishment, that every attache had gone about his business, leaving the institution to take care of itself. First he looked into one corner of the office, and then into another, and then lifting both hands he exclaimed, "This must never occur again. Never! Not a soul here, and all these letters laying about, too. This must be put a stop to."—Macon Messenger.

Corn, cotton, peas and potatoes, in Twiggs county, seem almost ruined.—Cor. Macon Messenger.

Crops in Spalding and vicinity are more promising than for many years.—Griffin Star.

The Cartersville Express says that it is well worth while to visit the Saltpetre Cave, two miles South of Kingston, where the Confederate Government obtained its saltpetre during the war.

The Macon Telegraph says it was rumored that Marshall K. DeGraffenreid was to be postmaster, but it is not true.

Our State is still in an uncertain condition. We have no fixed status or authority under the General Government, according to the Radical rule of faith. Looking, therefore, to a speedy solution of our difficulties—to our interest and welfare—the one thing needful for the people of Georgia to do is to disarm the violent opposition of extremists by preserving the peace and obeying the very letter and spirit of the laws.—Augusta Chronicle.

The Bar rooms in Columbus are to be closed on Sunday.—Columbus Sun.

SAVANNAH AND MEMPHIS RAILROAD.—From the Columbus Sun, we glean that the Savannah and Memphis Railroad has been graded 15 miles west from Opelika, work worth $105,000. It has $130,000 of individual subscription; $100,000 from Columbus; $100,000 from Lee county; $200,000 from Talapoosa county, with large prospects, all making $1,139,000 for the work. Alabama will endorse $16,000 per mile of bonds. The length of the road is 235 miles, making Alabama's subscription $3,760,000. The road will cost $7,000,000. The balance of $2,035,000 will easily come. Col. Sam G. Jones heads the directory. The first 20 miles are intended to be running by 1st of January.

Crops are splendid in Baker county. [Cor. Sav. News.

The Telegraph office of the Gulf road at Savannah, had all of its acid jars and boxes shivered to fragments on Thursday last, by a current of electricity that struck the wire on the road after a bad storm had just finished. The operator felt no shock. Parties in adjoining rooms felt it, some by a burning sensation in the head, others by numbness in the feet.—Savannah News.

Judge Johnson, has suppressed keno in Columbus. The Columbus Police, is to be uniformed in light blue.—Columbus Enquirer.

James R. Butts, an old citizen of Macon, is dead.—Macon Messenger.

Capt. F. J. Cercopely, an old citizen of Savannah, is dead.—Savannah Republican.

Heavy rain in Augusta and neighborhood, improving crops.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

The Milledgeville Recorder has a long leader on the subject of the Atlanta and Tennille Railroad, urging its construction, and promising a liberal subscription from the people and towns on its proposed line.

The exercises of the Oglethorpe University Commencement were creditable. The College should be patronized.—Recorder.

The Brunswick Appeal has secured the editorial services of Rev. C. A. Fulwood.

Glynn county has 240,260 acres of land, worth $398,815, and 146 white and 740 colored voters. Brunswick city property is worth $677,888.—Appeal.

The fine Steam Mill of Hilton & Sons, at Darien, was burned on the 20th. Loss $20,000. Lowndes county crops good and laid by.—Ibid.

Warrenton is having a successful Methodist revival. The Warrenton Clipper pronounces the military report of the Adkins affair, as a "monument of lies."

The corn crop is made, and plentiful about Bainbridge.—Cor. Sav. News.

Good rains in Baldwin. Corn and cotton suffering in Hancock. Jacob Freeman, a lunatic, walked off from the Asylum on Tuesday, and was killed by the cars. Capt. Jos. Wiggins has organized a military company in Milledgeville.—Federal Union.

Speaking of the Saloon, with the female waiters imported from New York to Atlanta, the Milledgeville Union wants its neighbor of the Recorder to tell any personal experiences of the place during the Recorder's late visit.

A "clay-soaking" rain in Athens—too late to save early upland corn, but good for other crops.—Athens Watchman.

SAVANNAH, GRIFFIN AND NORTH ALABAMA RAILROAD.—Contracts are now being let out on this road, and actual work is about to be commenced. The road will be in operation soon, between this place and Griffin.—Newnan Defender.

The Coweta county jail was burned Tuesday night. Incendiary work.—Ibid.

While the whole world is dependent upon us for cotton, there is no article of necessity, and scarcely a luxury, that cannot be produced within the limits of the South. This truth marks our section as the special favorite of nature, and it will, when realized by the world, cause millions to haste to this as to the elysium of earth. [Ibid.

A DOG KILLS A MAN.—The Augusta Chronicle tells of a fearful tragedy, in one of our upper counties. R., a young gentleman, with a beautiful young wife, lived near L., a gentleman of 55 his wife and a daugter of 25 years. R. had to go to Atlanta. His wife went over and invited Miss L. to stay with her, and returned home. She received a note, after tea, that her father would not let her go. About 12 o'clock she was aroused, by some one seeking entrance at her door. The man told her to open the door, or he would break it down. Mrs. R. told him she would shoot. He laughed, and bursted the door open. The dog sprang upon him and dragged him to the ground. Mrs. R. fled the house. It proved to be the neighbor, L., who had forbidden his daughter spending the night with Mrs. R., to violate her. The dog killed the hoary and lustful old man. No names are given, but the parties are said to be of the first respectability.

STILL ANOTHER SHOT.

The Governor's and Treasurer's Battle.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM DR. ANGIER.

The first statement made by Comptroller, in his article in Sunday's Intelligencer, that he had taken no part in the controversy between the Treasurer and the Governor, has no foundation in truth, and is a palpable contradiction to his strenuous efforts with the members of the General Assembly, in behalf of the Governor, in the matter of the $35,000 illegally drawn from the Fourth National Bank, New York.

The Comptroller says: "In reply to an official communication addressed to me by the Governor, I stated facts." What the Comptroller alleges to be "facts," are simply his own assertions not supported by any legal authority. In every instance, the Treasurer has quoted legal authority from the Court itself, and from the distinguished Jurist who revised the Code, to sustain his argument, and this argument stands unanswered and incontrovertible. The Treasurer has not only established his first position, but gone beyond and established others, which have not been denied, nor answer made by them by the Comptroller.

The Comptroller says: "In reference to his charge that I have counter-signed warrants in favor of clerks in the Executive Department, not authorized by law, I admit that I have approved warrants in favor of additional clerks, whom the Governor thought proper to employ, on account of the extraordinary pressure of business in that Department," etc. Where is his authority for departing from law, and letting the Governor's sense of pressure be his rule of action? His "sense of pressure" caused him to "press" $55,000 of the State's money out of the Fourth National Bank, in open violation of law, and the known will of the General Assembly. This reasoning would tend to throw the law entirely aside, and take the Governor's "sense of pressure" as a rule, which, in the language of more than one of his appointees, would bankrupt the State in less than two years."

The petty and childish excuse and charge, by the Comptroller, that, "if it were a crime in me to countersign the warrant in such cases, it was equally a crime in him to pay even one such warrant," does not apply to the Treasurer, for the warrant referred to as having been paid by the Treasurer, was first rejected by the Treasurer, but upon the statement of one of the Secretaries of the Executive Department, that the service had once been performed by the legally authorized clerks in Executive Department, but the records having been "mutilated by Sherman's army," as stated in the warrant, the Treasurer paid said warrant, because it was a re-performance of what had already been done, and was out of the ordinary duties of the Executive Department. The Treasurer has paid some warrants of doubtful propriety, among which is one in favor of the Comptroller's brother, by appointment of the Governor, at the rate of $1,800 per annum, and in all cases involving doubt, the holders of warrants have received the benefit of the doubt, their warrants in such cases being cashed.

The Comptroller states that "he has no right to supervise the Governor in his application of the Contingent Fund, as the Treasurer well knows." The Treasurer happens to know differently, and as the Comptroller, by this acknowledgement, shows an ignorance of the duties of his office, the Treasurer will quote the law for his enlightenment. Paragraph 3, of Section 94 of the Code, says: "It is moreover the duty of the Comptroller General to audit all accounts against the State, and allow or reject the same before they are submitted to the Governor." Again, from Cobb's Digest, page 1028, Sec. 1: "From and after the passage of this act, all accounts exhibited against this State shall be audited by the Comptroller General, and certified by him to be correct." Sec. 2. "When accounts, so audited and certified by the Comptroller General, shall be presented to the Governor, it shall be his duty to order the same to be paid by a warrant on the Treasury." The wording of the law shows that the warrant must not be issued until after the claim has been audited by the Comptroller General. It will be seen no exception is made whether the accounts are to be charged to the Contingent Fund or not, and we defy the Comptroller to find any law making any exception to the Contingent Fund.

☞ From the Army Hospital; the bloody battle-field, the mansion of the rich and the humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk; from the mountain-top, distant valley and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world, is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

* * * I have been in the Army Hospital for fourteen months, speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles have made me a well man.

OLIVE'S OFFENSE.

How She Panders to a Prurient Taste.

The New York Citizen thinks the attacks which have been made upon the nude and idiotic drama quite as indecent and as likely to do evil, as the drama itself, and selects what Olive Logan has uttered to prove the correctness of its position. The writer declares that her style is coarse, vulgar, abounding in low epithet and unwomanly slang, and trenching often upon the verge of obscenity. She produces in print the very worst elements of the things she attacks. She paints the naked form with a disgraceful accuracy, and holds her picture up for all the world to look upon. She seems to gloat in the depravity of her erring sisters; she shows their secret motives; she describes the overtures of managers to them; she delineates the "rehearsals," which are coarse and indecent, beyond anything the public are permitted to see; she makes her trade in nudity, in blackguardism, in abandonment of female modesty and refinement. By so much as the performances of these actors are shameful, by so much do the critiques of Olive Logan become unwomanly. And finally he concludes that Olive's "pen sketches" properly rank with the engravings which represent the shameless women of the stage in their most lascivious postures.

FANCY DUDS.

The Way the Noble Bugs Array in Paris.

On leaving the Comtesse I had an appointment over ices at Tartoni's, and who should pass by, escorted by one of the dignitaries of the diplomatic world, but Mme. Ratazzi, wife of the ex-Minister of Italy and descendant of the Prince de Canino, a Bonsparte therefore on the Italian side. She illustrates the imperial family by most extraordinary toilets, which quite alarm the Emperor. The one I had the privilege to see her in was a black poult, with train worked round showing gaudy parrots, each in varied hues, eating a cherry. The lace panier covered what was not worked, and over the panier came a sash with a parrot and cherry on each end. Her hat was trimmed with dazzling plumes, in the front of which was a cherry and on the side a parrot. The effect was such that crowds of boys followed her, and the gentleman who had offered the beauty his arm could only over-awe them by great presence of mind. Taking off his hat he bowed to them, as if they were actors showing off to a gallery of spectators. The people dispersed; but I wish to say all men have not a stock of presence of mind in store; and I inquire of bachelors, what each would do if a lady asked for his arm when she chose to be hooted at by city urchins attracted to her parrots and cherries and plumes and paniers and a dragging train. I was told by my friend at Tartoni's, unto whom I also put this query, that the thing could not happen out of Paris, and that nations are always blessed with wives for whom their men are fitted in every circumstance. I am happy this should be a peculiarity in the conformation of the French, and trust that in my own country, men may be found who are not such capital fits.—Foreign Cor. N. Y. Herald.

ATLANTA TESTIMONY

From N. P. Hotchkis, Esq.,

Auditor of the W. and A. R. R.

Dr. J. M. Foster, Empire Block:

Observing that your patients report to you by letter their improvement, I wish to state that you have very much benefitted my wife, who had been quite deaf for twenty years. She has been under your treatment but a few days, and can now hear the piano and guitar in an adjacent room, and the rain upon the roof—something she could not do for a long time past.

N. P. HOTCHKIS.

Atlanta, Ga., July 23d, 1869.

From Col. Jas. M. Ball.

ATLANTA, GA., July 14, 1869.

Dr. J. M. Foster, Empire Block:

DEAR SIR: Having been relieved by you of a partial deafness of some years' standing, I take pleasure in having you refer me. I had suffered considerable annoyance from my deafness, besides having noises in the ear, which were particularly disagreeable. A few days ago I was operated upon by you with flattering success. You did not cause me the least pain whatsoever, and I can now hear as perfectly as ever.

Tendering you my thanks and gratitude, I am yours truly, JAMES M. BALL.

OUR JOB WORK.—THE CONSTITUTION Job Office, with its new and varied material, its new presses, new type and many kinds of paper and colored inks, is prepared to do work as cheap, as good, as stylish, and as quick as any other office in the South.

We are willing to compare specimens with anybody.

☞ Reading matter on every page.

CORRESPONDENCE.—The letters of our correspondent "P," will be found to be particularly interesting. The writer is a gentleman of Atlanta. He wields a graceful pen.

We publish the letter of Stearns to the Boston Journal, alluded to by him.

It is hard that our people are to be judged by the mendacious slime of such irresponsible scribblers, as this creature Stearns. Yet, every word of his false and slanderous epistle, will be greedily accredited as Gospel Truth, by the willing and credulous readers of the Journal.

Another Important Decision.

Our Supreme Court on Tuesday, delivered another of their rulings that have a special importance for our people, in connection with the times. Large amounts of money are concerned, and the heaviest interests of that large class of legal characters known as fiduciary, as guardians, administrators, executors, etc.

The case was Killes Brown, against Wm. Wright, from DeKalb.

The Court decided that a prudent guardian, who before January, 1863, loaned money of his wards on negro security, is not liable, because of negro emancipation, whereby the money was lost. And that a guardian who took Confederate money, in good faith for debts due his wards, when prudent men were generally taking such money, is protected; and if he loaned the funds, so received before the 1st day of January, 1863, on good security, and they were lost by the results of the war, he is not liable.

Hundreds of guardians, executors, trustees, etc., took Confederate money, which was lost, who have been sued or threatened with suit, who will now be relieved.

Spain.

Spain is undergoing more intestine commotion. A party called the Carlists are endeavoring to get the control of the government, and considerable fighting has ensued. The insurgents are pretty strong, but it is believed the authorities can master the situation.

The Carlists are the champions of Don Carlos Luis Maria Fernando, Count de Montemolin, eldest son of Don Carlos the second, pretender to the throne in right of his wife, Maria Francisca de Assis, daughter of King John VI, of Portugal. The father was defeated in 1839, and abdicated in favor of the present Don Carlos in 1845.

Don Carlos was born in 1818, and is, therefore, 51 years old. He has been living in England. In 1849 he vainly tried for the Spanish Throne. In 1850 he married Maria Carolina Fernandina, sister of the late King Ferdinand IIk of Naples.

He is now trying to make good his claim to be Spanish King.

The authorities are making a good many arrests of parties, suspected of Carlist proclivities. A number of skirmishes have taken place, in which the Carlists have been worsted. It may prove a very formidable movement.

What Hurts Us!

The Chicago Republican has taken the following comment upon the killing of Adkins, by the Shreveport (La.) Daily Southwestern, as the text for a long leader:

"Our Northern 'friends' are the most unreasonable people in the world. They wont allow us the privilege of killing vermin—neither those they send us from an over-full nest, nor those that are 'native and to the manner born.' We are certainly more excusable for getting rid of such characters by violence than they would be, for if the system were fully carried out up there, the entire North would be depopulated."

The Republican's remarks are pointed and sensible. It says that just such sentiments as the above hurt us. They are taken as representing a public opinion that sanctions murder, and teaches the summary removal of objectionable characters.

The logic of the Republican, Radical though it be, is irresistible. It shelves its politics, and don't breathe Radical once, and utters notes of warning that our people will do well to heed.

The spirit that leads embittered men, to utter recklessly, such imprudent words is extreme Southernism, and if any thing wrong could ask palliation under ordinary circumstances, it is this excess of a feeling that is natural and finds an echo everywhere South. But we are in too great a stress to play polite with what damages so gravely, even though it is a good thing run riot.

We do not mean to say that the murder of these bad birds is a good thing, but we mean that the intensely Southern sentiment that hugs our land and burns at our wrongs, is too much in unison with an honorable nature to be condemned.

But when it bubbles into paragraphs, so full of dire import, so pregnant with murderous meaning, so productive of damaging deduction, so hurtful to us and our interests, we feel that it is our duty as a Southern journalist, to protest against it in behalf of our common welfare, and to deny that the blood-thirsty spirit therein patent, is general in the South.

We do not deny that those bad men who have injured, haunted and plotted against us, are unpleasant to our people. But no more than such characters would be in any community. But that our people are more lawless, and that they murder for mere political opinion's sake, we do deny.

One such injudicious sentence as the above does us more harm than a thousand conservative columns do us good. The truth is, that there is not anote to the poison of such a paragraph. Denials, explanations, and remonstrances stacked to the stars, wont outweigh a letter of it in those minds whose venomous and iron prejudices bend them resistlessly to a ravenous credulity for such things.

There is but one course. Omit the expression of such sentiments. They can't be recalled, after once published. They are greedily sought for by partizans to justify a course utterly indefensible on any proper grounds.

The admonitory observations of this leading Radical and influential paper, are an exceptional manifestation of sense and fairness on this subject, and it behooves us not to neglect its words. It thus concludes:

These take the rounds of the press, and are read by thousands who are influenced by the facts thus presented to their minds, not only as regards pecuniary ventures in the South, but even in their political opinions, and especially in their views of the policy of reconstruction. We, therefore, urge upon the friends of order in the Southern States, the importance to their section of open and emphatic discouragement of all such utterances as that reproduced from the Southwestern, and particularly the duty of bringing to condign punishment, the desperadoes who make a practice of violence and bloodshed.

MASSACHUSETTS LETTER.

Lowell Manufactures—Education—Ben. Butler and his Political Tricks—Stearns, the Slanderer.

From Our own Correspondent,]

LOWELL, MASS., July 24, 1869.

Editor Constitution: This city of cotton and woolen mills, derives its existence and importance, solely from the manufacturing enterprises located here. No less than seventeen millions capital are invested in the several corporations. The extent of the mills themselves may be conceived from this statement, that they are equivalent to a building six stories high, and one mile in length. They are all built of brick, in an elegant and substantial style. The boarding houses, occupied by the operatives, are neat brick, ranges three or four stories high, which, with the mills, cover one-half the area of the city. As the stocks in these mills are chiefly owned in Boston, the dividends are not expended here; hence you find less splendor in architectural display, and fewer evidences of wealth than you would naturally expect.

Lowell has an admirable school system, however, as, indeed every New England State has. The city expends between sixty and seventy thousand dollars annually, for schools. Every child is required by law, to attend school a certain part of the year—even those employed in the mills must have a certificate that they have complied with the law. These schools are absolutely free. A boy can fit himself for College, or a girl can advance as far as the course in most of our Female Seminaries, without paying one cent for tuition.

What a relief to the parents of Atlanta, would such a provision have!

Ben. Butler resides here, you know. Has one of the finest residences in the city. It is sumptuously furnished—largely probably, from the spolia belli.

Ben. is a shrewd fellow in every sense. He wanted to go to Congress, but could not get the nomination in his own District, so he bought a home in an adjoining District, occupied it a few months, received a nomination thus, and was elected. Though this was plainly contrary to the spirit of the law, yet he obtained the Governor's certificate of election, and a Radical House of course would not disturb so valuable a member.

I enclose a letter, published in the Boston Journal of this morning. It is a sample of the "information" from the South, which the people here are too ready to believe.

Do you know anything of Brother Stearns, and can you not show him up in his true light?

Yours truly, P.

The Cause of Freedmen in Georgia.

BOSTON, July 21, 1869.

To the Editor of the Boston Journal: I am a resident of Columbia county, Georgia, in which locality I settled some three years ago. As the affairs of Georgia have become somewhat complicated, it has occurred to me that the statements of a resident there would be particularly valuable at this time. I am a native of Massachusetts, and have resided several years in Boston. I left this city in 1854, as one of the pioneers in the work of rescuing Kansas from the grasp of the slave power.

On my arrival in Georgia, and after settling on my own plantation, I proceeded to establish a Sunday School for the benefit of my own laborers and those who chose to attend from the surrounding plantations. For this act of temerity, my life was immediately threatened, and strong precautionary measures were adopted on my part. A little more than a year afterward we began to organize our political movement, and the war "waxed hotter." In November, 1867, our Constitutional Convention was held, and in the April following our first election under it. At the election we polled some 1,650 colored votes, out of about 1,800 registered ones. The polls were protected by soldiers, and but little disturbance occurred, although the rebel spirit was rampant. But in November, the times had changed. The military was withdrawn, and rebeldom "did what it listed." Consequently in our county, we polled but one vote for Grant. In Lincoln county, adjoining us, not one Republican vote was cast. In our Senatorial District, embracing Columbia, Lincoln and Wilkes counties, the last being the home of Robert Toombs, out of 3,000 votes polled in April, we cast but 86 for Gen. Grant. This gentleman would not be permitted to set his foot in Lincoln county to-day. Mr. Adkins the murdered Senator, resided in Warren county, adjoining our county on the west. He was well known as an aged gentleman, of irreproachable character, and a minister of the Methodist Church North, in which capacity he preached in Augusta the Sunday previous to his brutal murder. A friend of mine warned him of his danger on that day, and besought him not to attempt to return to his home, as threats had been made in Augusta a day or two previous, by persons from his county.

Following this murder was that of the negro who was driving him home, and on the Sunday night previous, an infuriated mob attacked the Rev. Mr. Spilman, presiding elder of the Methodist Church, North, in the town of Waynesboro', about twenty-five miles from Augusta. His life was saved only by the protection of a large number of colored people. Hon. Josiah Sherman is Senator from our District, but has not dared to visit his home there since he left to take his seat in the Legislature, more than a year ago. Hon. J. M. Rice is Representative from Columbia county, but does not dare to go anywhere openly in that county, but resides a few miles from the line, near Augusta. Mr. Madison is Representative from Lincoln county, but has never dared to show his face there for more than a year. I was elected "Judge of Ordinary" for our county, in April, 1868, but was driven from my position by a ferocious mob, who gave me my choice to abdicate my office or die. When I appealed to the authority of Congress, their reply was, "d—n Congress! It is only a Rump Congress." Said they—"We will be d—d if the niggers shall rule over us, and you was elected by niggers." When I refused to leave the Court House they dragged me from it, and some proposed instant death at that time. Mob law thus triumphs in our county. I have not deemed it safe to visit our county seat since then. On my return from that place I was taken sick, and for two months was confined to my house, during which time rebel bullets flew around me, and rebel yells and screechings could be heard night and day. My situation was unpleasant in the extreme. My object in visiting the North is two fold. 1st. To urge upon the people the necessity of Congressional action in our behalf. We need protection and must have it—for the Republican party in Georgia will exist only in name. No fair election can now be held there without the presence of soldiers. If this is not granted, and Georgia is readmitted, you will have in Congress nine additional Representatives of the Democratic faith. Do you wish for such an event? Then let Congress pass either the Edmunds or the Butler bill, either of which will answer our purpose. But the colored members of the Legislature must be restored to their seats, and the military must be placed under the control of the Governor, who is a staunch Republican. Another object I had in view in coming North, was to see if some of our wealthy men could be persuaded to raise a fund for the purchase of a farm, which should be leased or sold to the freedmen in small tracts. A plan has already been devised by which this could be made remunerative and perfectly safe to the purchaser, on the advance of a comparatively small sum, say $5,000 or $6,000—the reminder of the price of the land being collected by the seller from the rent and improvements upon it. The universal cry of the blacks is, "Let us have some land." They do not expect it to be given to them, but are willing to pay a good rent for it, with a lien on the crops for security. They say they can not vote the Republican ticket as they are now situated, and many of them say they would die before they would vote the Democratic ticket. In Lincoln county, quite a number were killed before the balance would agree to vote the hated ticket; but under such potent instrumentalities as the bowie knife and the bullet, they soon yielded, and in a mass deposited their votes for the rebels. It is the opinion of all the white friends of the freedmen at the South, that they can never be thoroughly elevated without having land of their own to work upon. But I am trespassing too much upon your valuable space. Any person wishing further information upon this land question, can obtain it by applying to me by letter, or otherwise, at 517 Washington street. On next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, I shall speak in Morgan Chapel, Indiana place—upon the moral and religious condition of the freedmen in Georgia.

Yours, very respectfully,

C. STEARNS.

Turner on Top—A New Version of the Counterfeiting Scrape.

The following rich communication we clip from the New York Tribune to show the new complexion given to the Turner affair. What new rascality is up?

PERSECUTION OF THE MACON POSTMASTER.—Col. Thos. Wentworth Higginson forwards us the following letter from a former officer of his regiment, concerning the arrest of the Postmaster at Macon, Ga., of which we have had sensational accounts by telegraph:

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
Atlanta, July 19, 1869.

Col. T. W. Higginson, Newport, R. I.:

MY DEAR COLONEL: The arrest of Turner, the Macon postmaster, I presume, has created as much excitement North as here, and realizing your interest in the matter, I wish you to know that I have just come in possession of valuable testimony, that will fully establish his innocence and prove to the world that the whole affair is a clear case of persecution, and an outrageous conspiracy, to bring the Government into disrepute, exasperate the people against the present Administration, and to deprive Turner of his position. From the beginning I have felt that Turner was an innocent man, and consequently, have been incessantly at work, investigating the affair, in order to get at the truth. That I have been successful, you will know by telegraph, long before this reaches you, that is, if it is possible to obtain a re-examination, which we hope to get.

The examination closed yesterday, but, as the commissioner is not to render his decision until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M., we are in hopes to get the case re-opened for the purpose of introducing our important evidence—evidence, too, which is sure to acquit Turner and bring thunderbolts upon the heads of those who have attempted to persecute him. In my efforts to ferret out this matter, I have been very ably assisted by C. Conlan of the Treasury Department; in fact, without him, I do not know that I could have been successful, and without my knowledge of the affair, he would have made slow progress; but, through our joint efforts, everything has been brought to light. He has done nobly, and deserves great credit. Any information you desire, I will communicate with pleasure. With kind regards, yours respectfully,

GEO. B. CHAMBERLAIN.

☞ The following admirable and timely sentiments, from our esteemed contemporary the Savannah Republican, we copy and endorse:

VINDICATE THE LAW.—There seems to be in Columbia county, of this State, certain lawless parties who appear to be insensible alike to their own duty as citizens and to the best interests of the State and people. They take their own passions as guides for their conduct, and never stop for a moment to calculate the consequences of their acts to society or to themselves. They are breaking down the great safeguards of the community when they set the law at defiance or assume to anticipate its decrees. The perpetrators of such acts are, almost invariably ignorant, or very bad men, without character or social position, and yet society is to be accountable for their conduct. There is but one way to divest itself of this responsibility, and that is to combine and bring all such offenders to punishment. Whether ignorantly or maliciously, they make war upon government, imperil the public peace, and individual safety. So long as the laws can be enforced, there is no excuse for this state of things, and every respectable man in the community should unite to vindicate the law. When the fate of individuals is determined by power or enemies who work in the dark, no man is safe. All are therefore interested in checking the evil. It is no greater in Georgia than in any other State of the Union, but wherever it exists it is a blot and a disgrace to society, and should be wiped out if possible. We know that provocations are sometimes very great, but men must be taught to subordinate their passions and feelings to the behests of law; and especially in all cases where the latter provides an adequate remedy.

Every act of lynch law is a stab to the vitality of Georgia. In ordinary times it is wrong, but in this crisis, when the eyes of the whole people are upon us in connection with our pertinaciously and falsely alleged want of respect for law, it is a miserable public outrage, that we cannot condemn too much. It is a matter of State existence with us. And we urge our people to forego the promptings of hot and often justifiable anger, and submit to the full supremacy of legal authority.

Greeley on Georgia.

In a heavy leader on the theme, "Delay is Peril," old Horace makes a crowding onslaught for Amnesty and Suffrage. He discusses Georgia, Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas. He is flatly out for buying us over to negro suffrage with his sweeping amnesty, and urges up prompt consummation of the bargain. He does up Georgia in the following style:

In Georgia, the "Conservatives" have on their hands a large elephant of their own raising. By expelling from the Legislature its colored members, when they thought Seymour and Blair were to be elected, they put themselves wholly in the wrong. They forced a majority for Seymour, when at least ten thousand more voters preferred Grant. Since they heard of Grant's election, they have been trying to get out of their false position; but this is not half so easy as keeping out would have been. Yet the recent decision of their Supreme Court that blacks were eligible to office has given them an excuse; and opportunity alone is still wanting. They are ready to restore to the colored members the seats wherefrom they were most wrongfully ejected, and to ratify the XVth Amendment. Could they be assured to-morrow that they might thus regain the ground they most unwisely and perversely abandoned, they would promptly do so. (We speak of the vast majority; there is in Georgia, as elsewhere, an incorrigible few; but their scepter has departed.)

NEWSPAPERS.

Their Ups and Downs in the City of New York.

The Journal of Commerce, dwelling on the fact that, during the past thirty-five years, no less than fifty-five daily papers have been started in the city of New York, lived for a short time, and then died for want of adequate support, after having sunk millions of dollars, moralizes in this instructive vein:

"The reasons why not more than one out of (say) fifty daily newspapers succeed are not generally understood. If they were, instances would be fewer of the sinking of fortunes in the unavailing attempt to found a daily—a waste of money as literal and complete as if the owner had burned it in his parlor grate.

The first and greatest of difficulties is the want of sufficient means. Upon this point, which has been frequently elucidated, we will barely touch. To run a first-class daily (and only such stands the least chance of surviving in the struggle for existence) costs not far from $1,000 a day, even with a moderate circulation. The rate of expenditure takes frightful daily bites out of the capital; and, unless the projector has the purse of a Stewart, Astor, or Vanderbilt, he cannot stand the inroad upon his funds for many months, or weeks or days. Among professional newspaper men in this city, the cash in hand required to give a first-class newspaper a chance of life, is either estimated at from a half to three-quarters of a million.

Its failure, without such a sum at its back—which it is prepared to invest boldly and sagaciously—is certain. Its success after all the money has been spent in the wisest and most judicious manner, is still highly problematical. Unless all the circumstances favor the undertaking—if there is a weakness or want of tact developed at any stage of it—no amount of money can put a new daily paper in profitable operation in this city. The failing newspapers are usually brought up with a round turn before many tens of thousands have been sunk. The backers become alarmed—and back out. If the new concern is a stock company, the subscribers to shares pay but one or two of the assessments, and then forfeit what they have invested rather than lose more. Only in a few cases are men so lucky—or perhaps we should say so foolish—as to go on wasting a real half million before abandoning their ill-advised newspaper scheme. Discouragement and disgust commonly supervene by the time that $50,000 or $100,000 have vanished in the yawning gulf."

The editor then goes on to show, that the newspaper business differs from most others in the fact that when once fairly established it can be indefinitely extended, with no risk and but little extra trouble—and then adds:

"The promising fields of first-class daily newspapers being already occupied, no new journals can command a great success, except by taking away subscribers from other papers. This is a very difficult thing to do. It never can be done except in cases where the paper to be supplanted wantonly and persistently neglects the interest or abuses the confidence of its subscribers. So long as it pursues a just, honorable, and judicious course, meeting the wants of its customers in all or most respects, the ties of friendship between the subscribers and the paper are as hard to break by any outside third party as the links which bind old friends in business or social life. Occasional defects and errors, if such there be, in a news paper, are overlooked by those who have become attached to it through its daily perusal for years. They may sometimes become dissatisfied with it on account of something which has slipped into its columns, and may stop taking it; but the absence of the familiar sheet at their house or office for a few days, becomes an insupportable deprivation, and they hasten to take it again, and meekly to apologize for having stopped it. This we believe to be a common experience in the history of all established newspapers. No friendship on earth is more constant than that contracted by the reader for a journal which makes an honest and earnest effort to merit his continued support."

Will Grant ever get the hang of politics? That depends.

Ordinarily it took cents to make dollars. Now dollars are made without any sense whatever.

Judging from his stumbling through politics, Grant seems to have never gotten out of the Wilderness.

Queer—That the height of a healthy man's ambition should be to get an itch in the Temple of Fame.

Grant cannot be rated A. No. 1, since everywhere he is B rated.

LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale 1,000 acres of land known as the Tumville Farm. The above mentioned farm lies near the centre of the county of Calhoun county, within a short distance of Morgan, and has been carefully surveyed by the Bainbridge, Cuthbert and Columbus Railroad 20 miles south of Cuthbert, and is first quality, oak and hickory land, the most of which is now in a high state of cultivation. The above farm is divided into fields containing from 10 to 20 acres each, and the most of the fields are cleared, but there are 475 acres of the 1,000 acres cleared and under a high state of cultivation. This farm is well watered, having a never failing stream of water running through every field, which is sufficient to water 200 head of stock. There are two settlements on the farm. Improvements are good. Price reasonable. Terms easy. Personal inspection of the land is indispensable. I live near the farm, and will take pleasure in showing the farm to any one desiring to purchase. Any further information desired will be cheerfully given by letter.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA::::::::JULY 30.

Supreme Court—Evening Session.

Reported Expressly for The Constitution.

THURSDAY, July 29.

General Toombs concluded the argument in Battle vs. Shivens, continued case from Warren.

The next continued case on the Northern Circuit is, W. F. Mattox vs. John Eberhart, administrator. Error to Upson, from Oglethorpe. B. H. Hill and M. Matthews, Reed, Toombs and Dutton for plaintiff in error. Gov. Alexander for defendant in error.

The next continued case is, Geo. R. Sims, et. al. plaintiffs in error, vs. Martin Sims, et. al. defendants in error. Equity from Oglethorpe.

B. H. Hill, by the Reporter, for plaintiff in error.

Toombs and Dutton, Matthews and Reed, for defendant in error.

Argument was opened by Mr. Hammond. Pending the reply of Mr. Reed, court adjourned till 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION Committees, noticed in our evening edition, were appointed yesterday morning. In our notice of the first day's proceedings the name of Dr. W. S. Chandler, of New Orleans, was omitted, and the word "patient" was rendered "silent."

Yesterday the following honorary members were elected: Dr. E. Daniel, Holly Springs, Miss.; Dr. Robert Arthur, Baltimore; Dr. W. H. Thackston, Virginia; Dr. T. B. Hamlin, Nashville; Prof. Samuel Gross, Philadelphia; Prof. Warren Stone, New Orleans; Prof. Paul F. Eve, St. Louis; Prof. S. H. Stout, Atlanta.

A letter from Dr. W. W. H. Thackston, of Virginia, was read and ordered spread upon the minutes.

Drs. Holland, McAnley and Ford were appointed a committee to report on the subject of having the members of the Convention photographed. They made a report as to the cost, and were discharged. Afterwards, Dr. Walker was made a committee of one to arrange for having the photographs taken.

Drs. Gorgas, Morgan and Marshall were appointed a committee to prepare for publication the proceedings of the Convention.

A letter was received from Dr. P. P. Lewis, of Tallahassee, Fla., regretting that he could not attend on account of sickness, and placed on file.

An Essay, written by Dr. J. F. Canine, of Louisville, Ky. (on "Rose Pearl Base") was read, and referred to the Committee on Mechanical Dentistry.

An Essay, by Dr. Andrew F. McLean, of New Orleans, on "Prevention of Dental Decay," was read by Dr. Knapp, and referred to Publication Committee.

Dr. J. P. H. Brown, read an interesting Essay on the "Progress of Dental Science," which was referred to Publication Committee.

Dr. Gorgas read an Essay entitled "Microscopy of the South," by Dr. Cutler, of Mississippi. The thanks of the Convention were returned to Dr. Gorgas for reading it.

Letters were received from Drs. J. A. Therber, of New Orleans; W. H. Shadoan, of Louisville; and W. Leigh Burton, of Richmond, Va., and placed on file.

Dr. F. Y. Clarke, of Savannah, exhibited to the Convention a set of false teeth, used by Gen. Oglethorpe. They were antique in appearance, and attracted some attention.

A resolution was adopted that the Convention would not as a body, take into consideration and report upon the merits or demerits of dental material, instruments and furniture of any description.

The following are the organizers of the Convention:

M. D. DD. S.—W. H. Morgan, Samuel Rambo, F. Y. Clarke, F. J. S. Gorgas.

DD. S.—J. S. Knapp, W. T. Arrington, J. R. Walker, W. S. Chandler, T. J. Jones, E. W. L'Engle, W. G. Redman, H. A. McDaniel, Albert Hape, J. G. Angell, G. J. Frederick.

M. D.—W. H. Burr, H. Marshall, A. C. Ford, J. D. Thomas, E. B. Marshall, C. D'Alvigny, H. A. Towrance, R. A. McDonald, J. P. H. Brown, S. G. Holland, H. T. Henry, J. A. Tigner, T. W. Hentz, J. Fogle, T. J. Crowe, E. M. Allen, B. B. Alfred, W. T. Cole, C. A. Jordan, H. D. Boyd, J. G. McCauley, W. H. Cook, John Fouche, W. Reynolds, J. M. Day, L. Angspath, B. F. Arrington, L. D. Carpenter, J. T. Campbell, J. H. Cleveland and J. W. Wiley.

Dr. F. J. S. Gorgas is the Professor of Dental Surgery in the Baltimore Dental College, and editor of the American Journal of Dental Science.

Dr. J. S. Knapp is a leading Professor in the New Orleans Dental College, and one who makes his profession a study. We were pleased to make his acquaintance and that of his esteemed wife, whom we found to be a lady of high intellectual endowment and polished manners.

One of the noticeable features of the Convention, was the presence of several ladies, among them a young lady of remarkable beauty and fine personal appearance, from Savannah.

The dinner at the National, is said to have been in Pond's inimitable style. A number of ladies graced the table with their presence, and several members of the City Council. Speeches were made by President Arrington, Dr. Morgan, Prof. Gorgas, Drs. Clarke, Knapp, Arrington and others. Drs. J. P. Logan, and E. J. Roach, of this city, also made interesting remarks. Everything passed off harmoniously and agreeably.

HOW TO BUST A "KENO" RINK.—We learn from an eye witness to the transaction, that a fishing party, who went on a fishing frolic to Conyers, camped at a mill on the night of their arrival, and opened a "Keno" Rink. The "Boss" couldn't see well, and the "boys," in betting, used ten dollar Lyon's Kathairon bills. As only 5 cents was bet at a time, the "Boss" had to give change every time, and when closed up had a full "bank" of these bills and no change. The "Boss" was decidedly sold when he tried to pass one of the bills on Conductor Smith, who quietly said, "fool who," and put him off at Lithonia.

ATLANTA, GA., July 29, 1869.

My Local of the Constitution: Will you please inform me whether the recipient of a couple of communications, relative to an "eighty-five" minute serenade, etc.,) local of a certain newspaper in this city, whiskies his water with "red-eye," or is he laboring under the effects of the beauty he escorted to the Mineral Springs yesterday.

TROMBONE.

We are not posted in the matter, Mr. Trombone.

BAPTIST MINISTERS' INSTITUTE OF GEORGIA.—According to the vote of the Institute at its last meeting, in Marietta, this body will meet on Wednesday, August 11, with the Baptist Church at Rome, Ga. The following ministers have consented to read essays before the Institute:

Rev. Dr. Brantly, on Ritualism; Rev. Dr. Hillyer, on Systematic Beneficence; Rev. Mr. Fuller, on Preaching.

It is hoped that Rev. Dr. Landrum will read a paper on some subject not yet indicated.

Brethren are cordially invited to attend and participate in the discussions of the body.

REV. H. C. HORNADY.—Our energetic and eloquent friend Rev. H. C. Hornady, now of LaGrange, has consented to deliver an address on Temperance, at the City Hall, in this city, on the 4th of August. His ability as a speaker will attract doubtless, a full house. We trust that the temperance organizations in Atlanta, and towns adjacent, will turn out on that occasion in full force.

SALE AT KIRKWOOD TO-DAY.—The sale of real estate at Kirkwood, by Col. Adair, comes off this afternoon. An extra passenger train will leave at half past three o'clock, to convey passengers down to it. It is designed as a grand railroad excursion, watermelon festival, and financial promenade.

THE Chimney Corner, containing a photograph likeness of E. Hulbert, and a sketch of his life, can be obtained at Phillips & Crew's Book-Store.

Peter's Magazine.—The August number of this sterling monthly, has been promptly placed on our table by Messrs. Phillips & Crew. It opens with a well written and touching eulogy on the gallant and beloved, Lieut. Col. Gustavus A. Bull. That true poet and eccentric genius, Dr. F. O. Tichnor, contributes "Nephew Tom at a Crisis." Rev. E. B. Teague who writes elegantly and well, contributes an article on "The Successors of Brougham, Smith and Jeffrey," which sustains his reputation as an earnest writer and deep thinker. "The Will of God," a prose Idyl, by James Maurice Thompson, reaches chapter third. It grows interesting on every page. Theodora Johnson gives a deeply interesting and highly entertaining sketch of the life and writings of Mrs. Mary E. Bryan.

The sketch is true, and but pays the just tribute of praise to Mrs. Bryan. "The Mystery of Cedar Bay" from the pen of Mary E. Bryan, a name familiar and dear to many of our readers, it is announced will be concluded in the next number. We hope that it will be given to the public in book form.

Numbers one and two of "Letters from the old World" addressed to the students of the Senior Class, Georgia University, by the Venerable Chancellor, A. M. Lipscomb, are published in this number. Under the head of "Editorial Miscellany" a letter from Marie Edgeworth to a friend. The number is filled with good selections and is worthy of the price, 25 per annum. Rev. W. J. Scott, is editor and M. T. Phillips associate.

NEW READING CLUB.—A Reading Club, was formed on Wednesday night, at the residence of Col. Tigner, on Peachtree street, with fourteen members. Lewis Crawford is President, and Henry West Secretary. We wish it success.

MEETING OF SABBATH SCHOOLS.—The First and Second Baptist Sabbath Schools will meet, for rehearsal, in the Lecture Room of the Second Baptist Church, on Thursday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and at the same hour on Saturday afternoon in the Lecture Room of the new First Baptist Church. Also, on Sunday, August 1st, the Lecture Room of the First Baptist Baptist Church will be opened for public services in the following order:

Meeting and re-organization of the Sabbath School, at 9 o'clock, A. M. Sermon, by the Pastor, Rev. R. W. Fuller, at 10½ o'clock, A. M.; Union of the First and Second Baptist Sabbath Schools, at 4 o'clock, P. M. The exercises of this hour will consist in: Reading of the Scriptures and Prayer, by Rev. D. Shaver, D. D.; Address, by L. G. Crawford, Esq.; Song, by the Schools; Address, by Rev. W. T. Brantley, D. D.; Song, by the Schools; Address, by General John B. Gordon; Song, by the Schools; Presentation of Prize Bibles, by Charles A. Kendrick; Prayer; Sermon at 8 o'clock at night, in the Lecture Room. The public are cordially invited to be present.

DR. J. A. CLOPTON, of Huntsville, Ala., may be consulted for a few days, at the U. S. Hotel, city of Atlanta. He treats with perfect success, PILES, FISTULA, STRICTURES, TUMORS, POLYPUS, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, ETC.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—Galileo invented the telescope; Columbus discovered a new world, and to Professor Morse is due the credit of teaching the lightning how to talk. But it was reserved to Dr. J. Bradfield to penetrate the mystic depths of science, and drag therefrom the wonder of our century. The victory has been won, and woman is free.

The sale of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is unprecedented in the history of popular remedies, and thousands of certificates are coming in from grateful women, throughout the Union, attesting its powers and applauding its untold benefits to their sex. dtf

MUTUAL FIRE AND LIFE

Insurance Company,

MACON, GA.

Authorized Capital::::$500,000!

Certificate of authority issued by the Comptroller General, under Act of March 19, 1869, requiring one hundred thousand dollars capital.

COL. W. J. LAWTON, President, J. C. McBURNEY, Vice Pres't,
R. J. LIGHTFOOT, Secretary.

This Company is now prepared to issue all classes of Policies. In the Life Department is offers more liberal terms than any other company in this country.

It calls particular attention to the following prominent features:

1. It is a Home Company—a Southern Company, owned and managed by as able financiers as our State can produce.

2. All its policies are non-forfeiting, and so long as one dollar of premiums or dividends remain in the hands of the Company unearned, so long is the policy kept alive.

3. Its policies are incontestible, except for fraud.

4. Its policies contain no restrictions of either travel or occupation, and world-wide in its fullest sense.

5. As low a rate of premium as a due regard to safety will permit, and will compare with any other Mutual Company.

6. Thirty days grace allowed upon payment of renewal premiums, and the policy held good for that time.

7. One-half the premium remains a permanent loan on the policy, at legal interest, which loan it is confidently expected will be extinguished by dividends.

8. It is a Mutual Company; all the profits equitably divided among its policy holders.

9. Dividends declared annually, upon the contribution plan.

10. Females insured at same rates as males.

Feeling assured that the above features must commend this Company to the favorable consideration of the public, we respectfully ask an investigation of its merits, by those contemplating insurance, satisfied that we offer greater inducements than any other Company now extant.

Able Solicitors and local Agents wanted all over the country. Address,

J. C. McBURNEY,
Vice President, Macon, Ga.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., July 23, 1869.

Whereas, a vacancy has occurred and now exists in the office of Ordinary of Glynn county, caused by the resignation of John B. Miller, the person having been elected thereto:

Now, therefore, I, Rufus B. Bullock, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of this State, and of the Militia thereof, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby appoint George McK. Mitchell, of the county of Glynn, Ordinary thereof, to fill the vacancy aforesaid, and order that he, the said Geo. McK. Mitchel, upon his executing and filing in this Department, his official bond as Clerk of Ordinary, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, with such sureties thereto as the law requires and satisfactory to me, be commissioned accordingly.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the Capitol in Atlanta, the day and year first above written.

[OFFICIAL.]
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Atlanta, Georgia, July 23, 1869.

To all whom it may Concern, Greeting:

Whereas, it is a well known fact in the history of the late Rebellion, that the civil authorities of this State exacted from the several Banks doing business therein, loans of large amounts of their capital stock and assets, which have never been repaid, and that the said Banks have hereby been reduced to insolvency; and

Whereas, Robert F. Curry, as President and a Director of the Northwestern Bank of Georgia, Walker P. Inman, as Cashier and a Director of the same Bank, and William H. Inman, as a Director in the same Bank, were indicted at the March adjourned Term of the Superior Court in and for Catoosa county, for a misdemeanor in the insolvency of said Bank, on the first day of April, A. D. 1868; and also for a failure to redeem the notes of the said Bank on the 13th day of April, A. D. 1867, which, it is alleged, were on that day presented for payment to the amount of Fifty Thousand dollars; and also for a failure to redeem the notes of the said Bank, on the twenty-second day of October, A. D. 1867, which, it is alleged, were on that day presented for payment to the amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars; and

Whereas, satisfactory proof has been made to me that the affairs of the said Bank have been fairly and legally administered, and generally with the same care and diligence that agents, receiving a commission for their services, are required and bound by law to observe, and that the insolvency of the said Bank and its inability to redeem its notes have been brought about by no agency of the said Robert F. Curry, Walker P. Inman, and William H. Inman, but are the necessary results of the action of the civil powers of this State during the late Rebellion, and the destruction and loss of property occasioned by the late civil war; and

Whereas, the expenses, inconvenience and trouble of a defense will work great hardship and damage to the said parties:

Now, therefore, in consideration of the facts and circumstances aforesaid, and to the end that impartial justice may be done, I, Rufus B. Bullock, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of this State, and of the militia thereof, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby pardon Robert F. Curry, Walker P. Inman, and William H. Inman, of the said misdemeanor and misdemeanors, whereof they and each of them now stand and stands charged and indicted, in said county of Catoosa, as hereinbefore recited, and all misdemeanors, consisting in this insolvency of the said "The North western Bank of Georgia" or in failures or refusals to redeem the Notes of the said Bank in specie or in current bank bills passing at par, and committed or alleged to have been committed by the said Robert F. Curry, Walker P. Inman, William H. Inman, or any of them, since the nineteenth day of January, A. D. 1861.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the Capitol, in Atlanta, this the 23d day and year first above written.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK, Governor.

H. PAGE LEWIS,
Secretary Executive Department.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to hear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked; more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly esteemed and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Cement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLAROW, Walker Co., Ga., June 29, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D's, but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate the suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1866, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. It CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JENNIE JOHNSON

BULL'S CEDRON BITTERS

AUTHENTIC DOCUMENT.

ARKANSAS HEARD FROM.

Testimony of Medical Men

BROKEN BOW, White Co., Ark., May 28, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Lewisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially if your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Rickett & Neely.

Respectfully, C. B. WALKER.

Supreme Court—Morning Session.

Reported Expressly for The Constitution.]

THURSDAY, July 29, 1869.

The Court heard Col. Peeples on his motion to reinstate No. 8, Flint Circuit, and overruled the motion.

Argument proceeded in the cause on the Northern Circuit. At the conclusion of Judge Reese's argument for defendent in error, Court adjourned till 3 o'clock, P. M.

THE ANGLO-SAXON'S.—A crowded house, last night, greeted the second quarterly prize belt exhibition of the Anglo-Saxon Gymnastic Club. The following judges were appointed, viz: Col. Thomas F. Lowe, Col. J. Troup Lumpkin and J. E. Butler.

The contest for the various prizes was entered into with great spirit, and so skilful were the performances that it was a difficult matter for the Judges to make the award. However, after mature deliberation, they awarded the Champion Belt to A. S. Clayton, son of our popular townsman, Judge W. W. Clayton. For the best performance on the Horizontal Bar, to W. C. Sparks. On the Parallel Bar, to J. C. Hunnicutt. Accrobatic to Robert E. Rushton, and for Strength, to Edward Kendrick.

It will be seen that the Belts awarded at the last tournament were retained by the recipients, except that for feats of strength, Mr. Whitehead being absent, and thereby forfeiting his claim to the Belt, it was awarded to Mr. Kendrick. The Judges complimented the members of the Club in high terms. After the Turning was over, the exercises wound up with a Social Hop. Everything passed off quietly and agreeably.

DENTAL CONVENTION.—On last night, the Convention proceeded to elect permanent officers, with the following result:

President—W. T. Arrington, of Memphis, Tennessee.

Vice-Presidents—W. Reynolds, of South Carolina; L. Augspath, of Arkansas; J. G. McAuley, of Alabama.

Corresponding Secretary—F. J. S. Gorgas, of Baltimore.

Histology and Microscopy—Drs. W. T. Arington, Tenn., T. J. Jones, Ga., John G. Angell, La.

At one o'clock, the convention adjourned until 8 P. M., and went on a visit to the Medical College. At 3 P. M. a dinner will be given them at the National.

"Snorting Maria."

A smart piece of feminity, who rejoices in the professional sobriquet of Senorita Maria, distinguished herself in the Varieties Theater, in Atlanta, the other night, by stabbing a gentleman named Gaines Chisolm in the throat with a stiletto. The "gay and festive" Maria is well known to the habitues of the Varieties in this city, where she played a pretty lengthy engagement last season. She is a very versatile performer, an accomplished and graceful danseuse, a charming vocalist, and a capital eccentric actress. There is quite a spice of diablerie in her composition, and she was in the habit of "making things lively" around the Varieties when her spirits were at fever heat. On one occasion she drew her stiletto, which she always carried about her person, in the "wine room," and caused a general stampede among the performers, all of whom were disinclined to blood-letting. Maria first saw the light of day in the south of France, her parents being natives of the kingdom of Spain. At a very early age she accompanied her parents to California, and being naturally of a very lively disposition, she ran away from home, one fine morning, and joined a traveling Variety troupe, who were about to make a tour through the mines. She soon became a great favorite with the rough, uncultivated miners, from her sprightly, lively manners, and while the troupe was playing an engagement in Marysville, "Snorting Maria," as her uncouth admirers characteristically named her, was the "star" of the period. Through proper management Maria might have been made a "star" of the first magnitude, and even rivaled the charming, talented little Lottie herself. She, however, preferred the free and easy, devil-may-care life of a variety performer and the society of "sports," one of whom she sent to the verge of the grave a few nights ago, as above mentioned. It is, however, expected that Chisolm will recover, and that the black-eyed Maria, who is now in "durance vile," will soon be at liberty again.—Memphis Avalanche.

☞ "Vocal velvet" is the language of the blondes. Eloquence measured by the yard, therefore, is one of their characteristics.

A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE.—If you have a cough, do not neglect it; thousands go to an untimely grave by neglecting what they call "a slight cold." These slight colds are very insidious. They soon become deep-seated, and defy all remedies. DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT will cure it. It can be had of any druggist.

DR.
SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR Medicine for Dyspepsia, Headache Jaundice, Costiveness, Camp Dysentery, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fever, Nervousness, hills, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood Melancholy or Depression of Spirits
Most of the ailments here enumerated have their origin in a diseased liver, which is the most prevalent affection in this country, and as in many cases the patient is not within the reach of a physician, it requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be active and safe. That such is the character of the SIMMONS REGULATOR there can be no doubt, which the testimony of hundreds will establish.
SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED
LIVER. Pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade is mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.
It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the foregoing symptoms appear. It is a purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitutions, and will keep the liver in healthy action if used properly.
Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose occasionally to keep the liver in healthy action.
Regulator For children complaining of colic, headache, or sick stomach a teaspoonful or more will give relief. Children, as well as adults, eat sometimes too much supper, or eat something which does not digest well, producing sour stomach, heart-burn, or restlessness; a good dose will give relief. This applies to persons of all ages.
Many persons, from eating too much, are restless at night, or in day time hugety, wool-gathering, can't understand what they read, can't keep their thoughts on any one subject so as to reason well, or become fretful. One or two tablespoonful will give relief.
Jaundice.—Take enough Regulator after eating each meal to produce one full action from the bowels every day.
Pregnant ladies will find sure relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, etc., etc.

DR. HUNTER
CONTINUES to treat all private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects: as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, constipation, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, noctural emissions, and finally prostration of the vital powers, can be fully restored to health. Persons afflicted with this, or any other delicate, intricate, or long standing constitutional complaint, should give the Doctor a trial. He never fails.
The Doctor publishes a medical circular that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at his office, or by mail for one stamp. It gives a clear delineation of all the diseases and conditions resulting from the infringement of the moral laws, excesses, indulgences, exposures, and imprudences in married or single life. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others, daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own Laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlet at office free or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says.
